Dear Parents and Guardians,

Thank you for your interest in having your child/children participate in Randi's Camp for Hope and Courage. The camp is scheduled for three days, July 26, 27, 28 from 8:00 to 4:00 p.m. at the Silver Spring Presbyterian Church, 444 Silver Spring Road, and Mechanicsburg.

Randi's Camp for Hope and Courage is a 3 day therapeutic/recreational camp for children ages 8-13 who are exposed to and/or are victims of domestic violence. This year's camp will focus on a theme "Planting Seeds for New Beginnings - Growing Our Skills, Thoughts and Feelings" that motivates the children to participate. Each day the campers will participate in structured therapeutic activities that allow them to explore their personal strengths and to develop ways to best use those strengths to enhance self-esteem. Additionally, they will have the opportunity to make new friends and have fun during the recreational portion of the camp day. There is no cost for the camp.

The therapeutic portion of the camp will be facilitated by Jen Boyle and Shelly Farmery. Both women have Masters Degrees in Social Work with a combined 28 years' experience working with children and families who have been the victims of violence.

Enclosed is the application form for Randi's Camp for Hope and Courage. Please complete all portions of the application for each individual child and return to the address above no later than June 16, 2017. You will receive confirmation of your child's admittance to camp by June 24, 2016.

To be considered for admittance, you must be able to commit to the following:

- Attendance of at least one parent or guardian and camper(s) at camp orientation on June 28 from 6:00-7:30 pm. at a specific location in Mechanicsburg, PA (note: the location is not publicly shared due to confidentiality of clients)
- Attendance at all 3 days of camp – July 26,27,28, 2017
